Day.3

DAY 3: Barcelona to Costa Caribe Aquatic Park

Located right beside PortAventura, Costa Caribe is Spain's premier aquatic park, covering a huge area with splash pools, interactive water jets and free-fall water slides. Having undergone a renovation, the park now includes a dedicated children's area with a large pool and a floating pirate ship — stuffed to the seams with Sesame Street characters. Connected to the child pool is a full-sized adults-only pool, surrounded by Europe's highest free-fall water slide, 6-lane racer slides and, of course, sun loungers for enjoying the park in a more leisurely fashion! Like PortAventura, Costa Caribe has a wide range of eateries, with some five different cafes to choose from.
Overnight at Hotel Port Aventura

Meals:Breakfast

Day.4

DAY 4: Port Aventura Theme Park

After Breakfast, visit the Europe's second-largest theme park, PortAventura which has something to offer all the family. Split into different zones (each based on towns in different parts of the world) each with roller coasters and rides, the vast adventure park boasts a more sedate area for younger kids, too. For a white-knuckle ride check out the Shambhala; it's Europe's highest roller coaster with a 256-feet (78-meter) drop! Furius Baco takes the accolade for one of the world's fastest accelerator rides, and there are countless boat rides, water flumes, and white-water raft rides to add to the fun. Later in the evening transfer to Valencia. Overnight at Hotel Port Aventura

Meals:Breakfast

DAY 5: Madrid - Bullring

After Breakfast transfer to Madrid via train Welcome to Madrid Arena, the Plaza Monumental de las Ventas del Espíritu Santo, the international centre of bullfighting. On your visit with Las Ventas Tour you will discover a place which is emblematic of the heart and soul of bullfighting, where the world's finest matadors present their artistry and skill. We will guide around the key parts of the bullring, from the main entrance, to the tendidos, the callejón.... putting into context the three protagonists of this magnificent spectacle: the audience, the bullfighter and the bull. Overnight at hotel in Madrid
